MOUNTBATTEN FESTIVAL OF MUSIC

For almost 40 years the Massed Bands of the Royal Marines have performed at the Royal Albert Hall. Originally these concerts were given in commemoration of Sir Malcolm Sargent who for some 20 years was the Honorary Musical Advisor to the Royal Marines Band Service. Following the death of the Earl Mountbatten of Burma, who was Life Colonel Commandant Royal Marines, the concerts were renamed in 1980. The link with Sir Malcolm Sargent continues through the charity "CLIC Sargent" which together with the Royal Navy and the Royal Marines charities is the principal beneficiary of the money raised by these concerts.

Friday 13th - Saturday 14th April 2012

£159 per person

PLEASE NOTE: A deposit of £45 per person is required to cover the cost of concert tickets. (Deposits will only be refunded if we re-sell your seats)

Not Incl: Single room supplement £20

FRIDAY - We depart Bretonside at 7.30am and make our way to Sanders Garden World for coffee. We travel onto Windsor for a lunch break before arriving at our hotel where an early evening meal will be served (approx. 5pm). After dinner we travel into London to the Royal Albert Hall for the Mountbatten Festival of Music featuring the Massed Bands of Her Majesty's Royal Marines performing a wide variety of music, encompassing traditional military marches and fanfares, a classical overture and music from the stage and scene. The coach will return you to the hotel after the show.

SATURDAY – After breakfast we will make our way to Bath, where you will have time for lunch, shopping or perhaps a visit to the Cathedral or famous Roman Baths. We will leave Bath at 4pm aiming to arrive back in Plymouth by 7.30pm.
