SATURDAY - We depart Bretonside at 7.30am and make our way to Sanders Garden World for a breakfast / coffee stop. We continue onto London for our afternoon visit to Hampton Court Palace, aiming to arrive at 1.30pm. We have arranged a VIP Tudor cookery experience at the kitchens of the palace which are famous throughout the world for being those of King Henry VIII. One of the costumed Tudor cooks will give a short 10 minute talk on Tudor cooking followed by a demonstration. You will then enjoy tea / coffee and a cake or scone with cream and jam in the Tiltyard Café Tearoom. We then travel the short distance to our hotel to check in where you will have time to relax before our evening meal is served.

SUNDAY - After breakfast we travel the short distance to Kew Gardens where we will spend the day. We have arranged a 1 hour guided tour covering the Palm House, a run through the history and heritage of the gardens and viewing what is in flower at the time of the visit. Tea / coffee and a cake will be available in the lightened, historic Orangery, followed by a 40 minute tour on the Kew Explore land train. We will depart Kew around 3pm and arrive back into Plymouth by 8.30pm.
