THURSDAY - We depart Bretonside at 7.30am and make a coffee stop at Sanders Garden World. We then proceed to the lovely town of Worcester alongside the River Severn. You will have an opportunity to visit the magnificent cathedral dominating the skyline, or the famous Royal Worcester Porcelain site and its museum which is just a short walk away. The medieval Friar Street includes restaurants and bars in the original timbered buildings, and the Greyfriars, a merchant's house built in 1480 next to a Franciscan Friary, which is now a National Trust property.

FRIDAY – Today is a full day's visit into Stratford where you can jump on a sightseeing tour bus and hear the story of Shakespeare, take a boat trip or stroll along the river admiring the narrow boats, or even take a look at the newly refurbished Shakespeare Theatre. We will return to our hotel in plenty of time for our evening meal.

SATURDAY – We head home today, taking a leisurely drive through the beautiful Cotswolds villages, making a couple of stops along the way. We aim to be back in Plymouth around 7pm.
