POOLE & SWANAGE

Poole has Europe's largest natural harbour with 18 designated sites of Special Scientific Interest and nature conservation. The beaches here boast more blue flags than anywhere else in the UK, year after year consistently reaching the high standards of cleanliness required. It is also well known for its factory outlet shopping at Poole Pottery.

Swanage is located between the Purbeck Hills and also boasts award winning beaches and beautiful countryside. Places of interest include the Steam Railway, Heritage Centre, Durlston Country Park and nearby Corfe Castle.

Tuesday 7th August 2012

£27.50 per person

There is a ferry that operates daily between Poole and Swanage subject to weather conditions. There are 3 ferries per hour at 20 minute intervals although advance bookings are not permitted. Assuming all is well on the day, your driver will take you from Poole to Swanage via the sandbanks ferry. Otherwise you will have a slightly longer drive around the headland.
