

Roll up! Roll up! Have a go on the Hoe!

Come along to our charity Village Fete event on The Hoe on Sunday 16th August 2009 from 1030 until 1500. There will be vintage fairground rides, a team Bus Pull competition, the Citybus Bus Driver of the Year competition, medieval fighting and dancing displays, a dog show, a children's fancy dress competition, Punch & Judy shows, junior Field Gun Crew display, vintage buses, a bouncy castle, children's play activity tent, and many other fun things to watch and do. There will also be a free vintage bus service running between The Hoe and the City Centre. The charities we are supporting are Dame Hannah Rogers Trust and The Mustard Tree. It's going to be a fun day with lots going on and we look forward to seeing you there.

Full up to date information is available on our website. Visit www.citybusvillagefete.co.uk and you can read our regular blog on <http://citybusvillagefete.blogspot.com/> .

