

PASSENGER NOTICE ROAD CLOSURE

From Thursday 22nd July 2010, for approximately 2 weeks, Saltash Road (HMS Drake) from Royal Navy Avenue to Admiralty Street will be closed to all traffic whilst essential gas works are taking place.

A diversion will be put in place on Thursday morning, with all services outbound from the City Centre using Royal Navy Avenue and Admiralty Street, with inbound services running the reverse of the diversion.

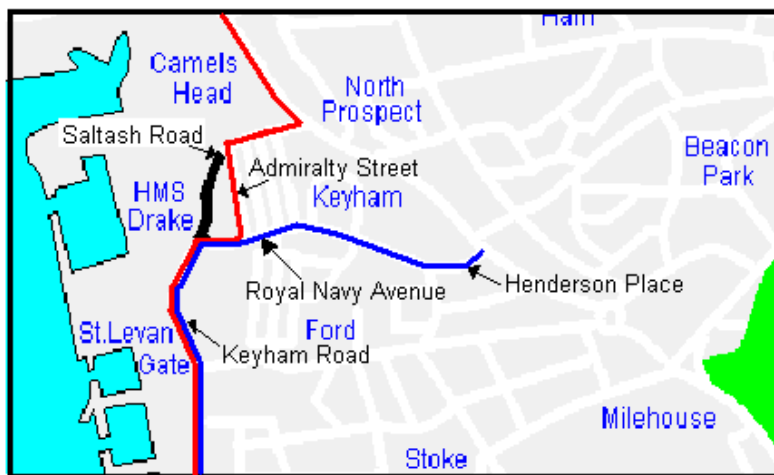

The services 14D, 33D, 112, Asda A1 and Tesco T5 will service Henderson Place as normal from Thursday 22nd, but will run via Royal Navy Avenue to Saltash Road and not service Admiralty Street.

This diversion will be under review for the first couple of days.

If the temporary traffic lights being put in place at the junction of Saltash Road and Admiralty Street are not successful in keeping traffic flowing and are deemed unsafe, then ALL services will run via Royal Navy Avenue and Henderson Place to Wolseley Road.

Also, If the temporary traffic lights being put in place at the junction of Royal Navy Avenue and Saltash Road are not successful in keeping traffic flowing and are deemed unsafe, the ALL services will have no choice to run via St Levans Road and Wolseley Road.

Map below shows proposed diversion if both sets of temporary lights are working correctly.

-  Services running via Henderson Place
-  Service running via HMS Drake
